AGREEMENT TO ABIDE BY RULES AND REGULATIONS

In consideration for acceptance of application, the entry unit agrees to indemnify, hold harmless, and defend against any action against the Coeur d'Alene Regional Chamber, any of the event sponsors, and the City of Coeur d'Alene from liabilities whatsoever arising from participation in the 4th of July Parade. Submission of entry form does not ensure acceptance. 4th of July committee approval is required. The spirit and intent of this parade is to celebrate the birth of our great nation and to honor the heroes who have fought to protect our freedom and way of life. This festival is family friendly. Therefore, no signage, visual public displays, or language that is in any way demeaning, disrespectful, provocative, or is intended to offend, disrupt, or disturb any person or group of people will be tolerated. This includes visual and/or symbolic displays (example: confederate flags), political rhetoric, or any rhetoric intended to place superiority, single out, discriminate or demean any class/group/type of people. Entries will be accepted on an invitation basis. If your entry is not accepted, your paid entry fees will be reimbursed to you.

- Coeur d'Alene Regional Chamber Parade Committee has the right to refuse entry into the parade and/or remove from the parade anyone not conforming to the rules and regulations.
- Persons or units not listed in the official parade lineup will not be permitted.
- Entries are assigned positions by the committee. Do not deviate from those positions.
- Equestrian entries must provide for their own animal cleanup (pooper scoopers), if not, an additional fee of $150.00 will be charged to the entrant.
- Entries that include small animals, such as pet rescue groups, must have the ability to have the animals transported on a vehicle or trailer. On very hot days, the mile-long trek in high heat has proven to be a difficulty, both to the well-being of the animals as well as the progression of the parade. If necessary, your entry will be required to use a vehicle or trailer to transport your small animals. Please discuss with Event Organizer, Miranda Hamilton, if this is applicable to you.
- No fireworks, open fire or flame are allowed by any participant.
- No spraying the crowds with water.
- Use and/or possession of alcoholic beverages or illegal substances are forbidden.
- A distance of 50 feet between parade units is required to be maintained. A volunteer placed at 15th & Sherman will help you in determining that length.
- Entries are limited to 50 feet in length or will be assessed an additional entry fee of $50.00 per ten feet.
- Coeur d'Alene Regional Chamber does not accept responsibility for travel, parking, food/lodging expenses, or security of units, vehicles or personal items.
- Entries must be a minimum of 75% decorated in accordance with the theme of the parade.
- All personnel with a parade unit must be appropriately attired.
- Drivers of motorized vehicles must hold a valid driver's license.
- INSURANCE: Evidence of insurance must accompany the parade application (if applicable).
- No discharging of firearms is allowed.
- Commercial signage is limited to that permanently affixed to the unit.
- The entry fee is non-refundable.

Absolutely NO material of any kind may be distributed in any way by the parade unit during the parade.

This a rule set forth by the City of Coeur d'Alene.

This regulation extends from curb-to-curb along the entire parade route.

Failure to comply will result in a $250 fine and possible denial of entry in future parades.
