Interviews
Class Acceptance
Class Payment Due

Icebreaker (Evening Event)

Purpose- To meet fellow classmates & learn about the program.

Setting the Stage Day

Purpose- To acquaint the class with the history & heritage of Coeur d'Alene & North Idaho.

Government & Transportation Day

Purpose- To acquaint the class with aspects of local, state, & federal government offices, as well as transportation topics & issues.

Health Care Day

Purpose- To better understand the life cycle of a patient within the healthcare system in Kootenai County.

Environment Day

Purpose- To develop knowledge & understanding of the issues facing our national, state, & local land, water, & other natural resource practices impacting the balance between commerce, growth, sustainability, & quality of life.

Arts & Recreation Day

Purpose- To learn about & experience recreational opportunities, as well as visual & performing arts in the Coeur d'Alene area. Arts & Recreation Day is about developing a balance in work & play that will lead to a refreshed approach to problem solving, innovation, & creating a well-rounded life.

Economic Day

Purpose- To introduce class to the forces driving the North Idaho economy, past, present, & future.

Law & Public Safety Day

Purpose- To highlight the work performed by public safety leaders in protecting & serving our citizens in our community & to explore current & future challenges in public safety & the criminal justice system.

Media Day

Purpose- To better understand how an effective leader can communicate with their customer & grow their business using a variety of mediums & communication tools.

Education Day

Purpose- To acquaint the Leadership class with aspects of K through 12 & higher education opportunities & issues.

Philanthropy Day

Purpose- To increase awareness of human services, the needs in our community, & the organizations & volunteer opportunities that exist to help meet those needs.

Retreat Day

Purpose- To review & evaluate the Leadership Coeur d'Alene Program presented, assign session planners for the next class, & to choose members to serve on the Leadership Coeur d'Alene Committee with the Chamber of Commerce.
